REAL TREAT RIGHT HERE AT HOME

It's Fun, It's Patriotic, to stay as near as home as possible, during the gas rationing, so say Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Armitage, in their advertisement in the Echo.

We are in thorough accord with the statement of Mr. and Mrs. Armitage, particularly when you can get the things you may want, with services as good as can be had in other localities.

We can assure you that the service and cooking at the Pine Cabins Restaurant which is under the direct supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Armitage will equal the cooking of many of the high class restaurants in the French Quarter of New Orleans. May we suggest if you care to have dinner out, that you call the Pine Cabins, and we know that you will be pleased and happy to know that in Bay St. Louis we are fortunate to have Mrs. Armitage, who is so well versed in the culinary art give her services to the public.

On Saturday, a large group of men and women from all over the county will be members of the Executive Committee of the Civilian Defense Volunteer Office of Hancock County met in the Court House and received instructions relative to the rationing registrations to begin on Monday, February 22nd in the public schools and public buildings of the city and county.

The registration will be charge of A. E. Cox, Director of the Civilian Defense Volunteer Office, with the aid of a number of workers.

Attending this meeting and receiving the instructions were Mrs. Geo. R. Rea, Assistant Director, Mrs. S. A. Power, Mrs. J. B. Goldman, Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Mrs. L. S. Elliott, Mrs. Roger Boh, Mrs. Joseph R. Scharf, director of the Citizens Service Corps, leaders, and from the county: Mrs. J. D. Williams, Clermont Harbor, Mrs. Lester Adams, Logtown; Mrs. Johnson Shaw, Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Shepherds, Kiln; Mrs. J. L. Crump, Kiln; Mr. J. Jackson, Dedaux, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Knobloch, of Waveland.

During the last trial blackout held in Bay St. Louis on the night of February 5th, which was during a heavy rain storm, the following boys served as messengers faithfully performing their duties, meeting at the Merchants Bank and police their beats, namely Bobby Choina, John Ryan, Clois Pecheu, Jack Wolf, Tracy Henrix, Fred McDonald, Charles K. Hoe and two of his friends.

Gulfport, February 16—A new system of air raid warnings promulgated by the Southern Defense Command will be the subject of study at a meeting of Civilian Defense personnel at the Buena Vista Hotel on the afternoon of Thursday, February 25 according to an announcement by George W. Houtz, acting commander of Civilian Defense for the three coast counties.

The meeting has been called by Colonel C. Fred Morgan, director of the Mississippi Civilian Defense Council. It will be attended by the chairman of all civilian defense councils in the three coast counties, and by the Commander of U. S. Citizens Defense Corps in each town. The new signals will be explained by George W. Ferguson, Chief of Control and Communications, Fourth Regional Office of Civilian Defense, Atlanta, Georgia.

By order of the army, the new signal system will become effective March 1. Heretofore only the red signal has been sounded. According to the new plan, the blue signal will be audible and will indicate the probability of the approach of an enemy. After this signal, street lights will be either dimmed, or put out entirely, but traffic will be permitted to move with dimmed lights. This will enable Civilian Defense Personnel to move to their stations after having heard the signal. The blue signal will be a steady blast for two minutes.

After the sounding of the red signal

SECOND BAND CONCERT

By St. Stanislaus Band Is Scheduled For Sunday,
February 21st.

The Saint Stanislaus Band Concert which was scheduled for Monday, February 22, will take place on Sunday, February 21, at 8 P. M. in the auditorium of Saint Joseph Academy. The change in date was made because of the talk that the President of our country will deliver over the radio on the night of Feb. 22, Washington's birthday.

Brother Romuald, band director, tells us that the band is well prepared for a fine rendition of the selections that appear on the program.

A feature number on the program will be the masterful rendition of Beethoven's Sonata Pathetique by the well known concert pianist, Mrs. Louis B. Pate. Mrs. Pate gave performances throughout the United States and the Latin American Countries. We are told that she is the only lady ever to direct the Marine Band in Washington, D. C. She was favored with the honor of being the guest conductor of some of our outstanding symphony orchestras in the country. The Saint Stanislaus Band feels highly honored to have Mrs. Pate appear on their program.

Following is the program that will be presented on next Sunday night. Remember, no charge for admission. "Taps and America"—audience join in singing. "Adornus Te"—Chorale by Palestrina. "Stepping Along"—March by E. F. Goldman. "Laughing Sax"—sax solo by Frank Kiefer. Hungarian Dance No. 5—Clarinet solo by Karl Fasold. "Louise"—a selection from the musical comedy "Der Fuehrer's Face." "Sonata Pathetique" Op. 27—Piano solo by Mrs. Louis B. Pate. "Bravura"—a march. "Sir Galahad"—overture. "Marche Slave"—clarinet solo by Edward Steiner. "Jassamine"—baritone solo by Randolph Bourgeois, Jr. "Dancing Dolls"—Gavotte. "Rampage of the Old Grey Mare"—a novelty. "The Scimitar"—march. The concert is opened to the public. However, it is suggested that parents refrain from bringing children under eleven years of age. These youngsters cannot give the attention and quiet that is necessary to make the program enjoyable to the public.

nal all traffic will cease and all visible lights will be extinguished except those which meet War Department specifications. The red signal will consist of a succession of audible short blasts.

It is the intention of the local civilian defense personnel to sound these signals at the noon hour on several occasions in order to familiarize the public with the signals. The public will be warned ahead of time that such sounding of signals is only for their information.

In actual raids, there is no assurance of the order in which signals will be given. However, the red signal will be followed by the blue in every instance, before the "all clear" is sounded.

RED CROSS SETS $125,000,000 AS WAR FUND NEEDS FOR 1943

Washington, D. C.—With a goal of $125,000,000 for its 1943 War Fund, the American Red Cross will embark upon the biggest campaign in its history on March 1.

Millions of volunteers will be recruited to assist in the nationwide appeal, which will be conducted under the direction of Walter S. Gifford, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, who is national chairman of the 1943 Red Cross War Fund.

In announcing the goal, set by the Central Committee of the American Red Cross, Chairman Norman H. Davis said the figure represented the minimum requirements of the Red Cross if the organization is to meet its war-time obligations.

"The goal," Chairman Davis said, "is based upon realistic estimates which careful study shows are actually needed to meet the heavy war-time obligations and responsibilities of the Red Cross. This sum covers local, national and international war-time needs of the organization for one year barring unforeseen emergencies or disasters."

"Of the total goal, $45,000,000 is the sum required by Red Cross chapters to finance their indispensable needs and their everincreasing local work on behalf of families of men in the service. The remainder, or $80,000,000 will go to the national organization which, however, requires one hundred million dollars to finance its national and international program. The difference will be met by a balance of $20,000,000 from the first War Fund of 1942 which will be applied to the 1943 budget."

Chairman Davis emphasized that more than 65 percent of the amount required by the national organization has been budgeted for Red Cross services to the armed forces.

With the approval of President Roosevelt, March will be observed as Red Cross Month in every city, town and hamlet covered by the 3,750 Red Cross chapters and their 6,154 branches. All walks of community life will be represented in the campaign.

The quota for the Hancock County Chapter is $5,700.00 and War Fund Chairman Lucien M. Gex and his corps of able workers expect to reach that with the generous cooperation of the people of Bay St. Louis and Hancock County in order to continue the good work which the chapter has accomplished in its many fields.

There is a flag that's flying
With it's colors in the sky
It is the flag of mercy, A banner lifted high.
There are flags of every country
That proclaim a nation's pride
But this flag goes marching next to every banner's side.
With its cross of red upon its field of snowy white
An emblem that's an honor to be united with a nation's might.
For mercy tempers justice and mercy rides on high
When the banner of the Red Cross is flaunted in the sky!

Hancock Chapter of the American Red Cross is especially indebted to the members of the Home Economic's Class of the Valena C. Jones School for their valuable assistance to the Production Department in making garments as they did a splendid job and helped materially with production.

The Production Department of Hancock Chapter of the American Red Cross has completed its winter quota of sewing and knitting as of January 1943 and is now working on the quota of sewing and knitting which must be completed and shipped by June of this year, and volunteers to assist in this work are always needed.

The Staff Assistants helped Dr. C. M. Shipp, County Health Officer, at his office in the City Hall on Tuesday in conducting a tubercular clinic when a large number of persons were examined. Mrs. Edmund P. Fahy, Jr., and Mrs. George S. Horton were the members of the staff assisting with this work.

March of Dimes

Argle M. Shaw, son of Melvin Shaw of Crane Creek, is stationed in Fort Riley, Kansas.

Graduates In Record- Breaking Class Of New Ensigns

Graduating in a record-breaking class of 270 new Ensigns, Richard Antoine Hammer, son of Mrs. George Hammer of Waveland, Mississippi received his commission in the Naval Reserve after completing the 15-week V-7 training course at the New York Navy Midshipmen's School. In the U. S. Navy's History, this is believed to be the largest group of officers ever to be sworn in at one time.

In impressive ceremonies conducted in New York's Riverside Church Ensign Richard Antoine Hammer and his class mates were sworn in by Captain John K. Richards, USN, the school's Commanding Officer. Vice Admiral Adolphus Andrews, Commandant of the Eastern Sea Frontier, delivered the graduation address.

This was the 10th class to be graduated from the New York Midshipmen's School since its inception 2 1/2 years ago aboard the historic training ship USS Prairie State, on the Hudson River's East Bank. Since then, the school has expanded to three Columbia University dormitories and become this country's largest source of new naval officers ready for combat duty afloat. 7500 Ensigns a year are graduating from this "Annapolis-on-the-subway."

The men who today were commissioned Ensigns will enjoy brief leaves, then report immediately for active duty.

Their parents are not revealed. Mrs. Hammer has both of her sons officers in the Navy—George, Jr., is an Ensign stationed in the Pacific.

Employees 10 Percent War Savings Plan Explained By Deputy Administrator

On Wednesday morning at 10:00 o'clock, Mr. M. B. Swayze, Deputy Administrator for Mississippi of the United States Treasury Department, and Mr. G. ## CARNIVAL BALL MARCH 6TH

Proceeds For Benefit Saint
Joseph Academy

It has become an annual custom in Bay St. Louis for the Mothers Club of St. Joseph Academy to sponsor a Carnival Ball. The question of holding the ball this year was debated for quite some time but a decision has been reached that the custom should continue.

It was thought that due to war conditions, it might not be the proper thing to have the public celebration. A number of persons were contacted and it was decided that at this time, the morale of the people might be boosted by having the Carnival Ball.

Tonight, Friday night, February 19th, at 8 o'clock in the den of St. Joseph Academy, the Carnival Ball Committee headed by Dr. James A. Evans, chairman, Mrs. John A. Green, Jr., President of the S. J. A. Mothers Club, and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, as secretary, will hold their meeting to arrange the necessary plans for the holding of the ball.

The proceeds derived from this ball each year is given to the Convent to assist in paying off the bonded indebtedness of the institution. No more worthy cause could be selected than this. The good Sisters who give up their lives to the service of God and who devote their lives to the teaching of children in ours and other communities deserve much credit. They have quite a debt to meet and we in Bay St. Louis, particularly should remember and realize that a large number of day students who attend the convent are not able to pay tuition, yet are never refused admittance.

Bay St. Louis is extremely fortunate in having St. Joseph Academy and St. Stanislaus College located here, as without them, we would soon be brought to the realization that the city could not afford to carry on the education of the children of this city without probably having to double the school tax. It is a God-send to us that Bay St. Louis has two such institutions to add to our public education institutions to care for our children and we are certain that the people of Bay St. Louis will respond this year as they have in the past to this good cause.

The Carnival Ball will be held on Saturday evening, March 6th, and music for the occasion will be furnished by the Merchant Marine Cadet Orchestra from the Henderson Point Base.

BUD'S LETTER

Dear Red:
Well, I guess you are wondering what's wrong with me this time. Now there ain't nothing wrong with me, it's my wives brother who is wrong. He came by my house the other day and was grumbling about high taxes. He said he was coughing up so much money to the government he didn't have enough left for anything. Now Red, I been waiting for a chance like this, and does I pour it on him.

I tells him to quit grumbling and be glad he can pay a little tax and have a little left, instead of working for nothing except food, and not as much of that in a week as he is used to eating in a couple of days. I laughs at him, and says every time you cough spit up a dollar. I tells him how the boys on Guadalcanal ain't grumbling, and all they get is fifty bucks a month plus about one chance out of twenty of coming home alive. All they ask is more equipment, and it takes money to make it.

Then that brother of my wives says he can't buy no more offense bonds because he is paying the government enough money in taxes. I tells him he is wrong again, because offense bonds is a investment plus a help to the boys fighting. These bonds ain't for the government they are for our own security. Then I says the government ain't no good if we lose, so we are paying taxes, buying bonds, and working so we can keep a government we like.

Now Red, here is my advice to all people who are coughing up so much money for taxes. Buy cough drops. Be sure and get the medicated kind, and if they don't help, get some made with a little arsenic. The last mentioned is a sure cure.

Yours for more and harder coughing;

ing their employees to purchase ten percent or more, if possible, in bonds each month.

The response to Mr. Swayze's plea was very good and it is believed that the goal will be easily reached. Mr. Joseph O. Mauffray, who is County Chairman of War Bond Sales Committee, presided at the meeting and introduced the visitors.

KEEP IT FLYING!

TIME FOR CORRECTION

DURING April and May 1942, hearings were held before Subcommittee No. 3 of the Committee of the Judiciary, House of Representatives, Seventy-seventh Congress, Second Session, on H. R. 5218, H. R. 6752, H. R. 6872 and H. R. 7067. The intent of these several bills was to bring labor unions under the regulation of anti-trust statutes and within the provisions of the anti-racketeering law of 1934. The bills were bitterly fought by the labor unions on the ground that they would handcuff labor in bargaining with employers.

Anyone who reads the testimony or looks at the pictures included in the record, would be horrified by the waste and destruction that was caused by strikes and boycotts involving farm products in 1941. Trainloads of citrus fruits in Southern California are shown dumped into canyons or on the ground because of packing house strikes and secondary boycotts.

Farmers who worked a year to raise, irrigate, cultivate, harvest and ship the crops, then worked days to dump them because of secondary boycotts.

The Hobbs bill, one of the measures which organized labor attorneys violently objected to, does not even mention the word labor; it does make guilty of a felony anyone who in connection with any act affecting commerce "obtains or attempts to obtain, by the use of or attempt to use or threat to use force, violence or coercion, money or other valuable consideration," or who "commits or threatens physical violence to any person or property" in furtherance of such plan. Could a bill seeking protection of the public in this manner, be truthfully called a threat to "peaceful" labor activities?

Since those hearings early in 1942, our nation has seen inexcusable work stoppages in all manner of industries—either by order of labor leaders or by so-called wildcat strikes. The public has suffered and our armed forces have suffered, and the perpetrators of such outrages have gone unpunished, and have even gained in their power to call strikes, slow up production, or create work stoppages as they see fit.

Congressman Hobbs of Alabama, on January 6, 1943, introduced H. R. 653, which seeks to remedy conditions shown in the hearings held in 1942. Correction of such vices is no attack on organized labor. No group in this nation should be permitted to cause such depredations and loss to the public as shown in the 1942 hearings, without just punishment such as would be meted out to any willful lawbreakers or promoter of antisocial acts.

LIVING UP TO TRADITION

THE medical profession hasn't done a lot of talking about the "sacrifices" its members are making. And yet doctors, perhaps more than any other group next to the service men, are making real sacrifices in this war.

Thousands of them have voluntarily given up their practices. They live in the foxholes with the soldiers. They fight and die with the navy and the marines. They perform miracles amid blood and suffering. Gone is the business for which they spent so many years in preparation, often on a financial shoe string.

The doctors left at home are making sacrifices too. Men who should be enjoying the leisurely aftermath of useful careers are back in harness working at a killing pace. They are on duty 24 hours a day—and they don't yell for time-and-a-half when Mrs. Jones is having a baby at 3 A. M.

The doctors are carrying out the tradition of American medicine in every emergency. Their example might well be followed by workers in other fields.

AMERICANS

HERE are two pictures of Americanism:

OVER HERE: Disgruntled citizens complaining of gasoline rationing and criticising every regulation issued by the government, even if it is designed to assure adequate supplies for our fighting men.

OVER THERE: Soldiers and sailors dying daily to protect the homes of all Americans, including the grumblers.

It is not within our range for every American to be "on the front" but it is possible for every citizen to be a loyal American, even at home. This loyalty is not a matter of saluting the flag or of praising the "brave heroes;" it is cooperation in the mighty war effort.

Where are the simple-minded folk of a few years back who believed that we could have peace simply by passing a few peace-resolutions?

Time certainly flies. One-sixth of 1943 is about gone. What have you accomplished that is worthwhile so far?

Food and feed crops may be as important as munitions before the fighting ends, which reminds us of the vital role that the farmer is playing in the world struggle for freedom. Nobody imagines, despite occasional squawks, that the farmer is going to desert his post in time of peril.

"Toughen up, buckle down and Carry on to Victory," is the Boy Scout major task this year. You can help the scouts do the job by contributing your share to the annual Boy Scout Drive now being conducted in Bay St. Louis. Help your boys and they will help your country to Victory.

The speed restrictions on automobiles and trucks on the highways of the nation will have a three-fold effect: It will save tires, save gasoline and, most of all, save lives.

LIBRARY NOTES

There will be no book review this month as the regular date for the review conflicted with the date set for the rationing of food and it was thought best to postpone the review for this month. Our friends may expect something very good for March but that will be given due publicity later.

We have a nice collection of books for the Victory Book Campaign from Mrs. J. M. Taylor of Waveland. This gift is the type of Americanism and patriotism that helps the boys at the front. We hope there will be many more gifts like this forth coming. Remember to give only the kind of books you like for yourself. We hope Hancock County is going to go over the top in this campaign. Think of your boy and then give a book.

We are indebted to Mrs. Arceneaux for a full year of the Reader's Digest for 1942. And this was something Mrs. Arceneaux wanted for herself.

We have also received books from Mrs. Max Kohler, Mrs. George R. Rea and Miss Lucy Richardson.

"GENTLEMAN JIM"
AT A. & G. THEATRE
SUNDAY AND MONDAYIt's a Knockout—Starring
Errol Flynn and Alexis
Smith

Translated into ring jargon, "Gentleman Jim" is a knockout! Packing all the excitement of the 1880's and the color of the Gay Nineties, the current Warner Bros. picture at the A. & G. Theatre is an action account of the life of James J. Corbett who somehow typifies the period in which he became heavyweight champion of the world. Especially worthy of mention is the thrilling climax of the picture in which Corbett wins the crown from John L. Sullivan in the New Orleans bout which has become a classic in the annals of sports history.

Skilful Directing
Raoul Walsh, ace director of action pictures, has handled "Gentleman Jim" with the same skill that he gave "High Sierra" "They Died With Their Boots On" and "Desperate Journey." Errol Flynn, as Corbett, and Alexis Smith, as a bella of the times, turn in excellent performances.

In similar vein the supporting cast headed by Jack Carson, Corbett's best friend; Alan Hale who plays Pat Corbett, Jim's colorful dad; John Loder, a suitor for the hand of Alexis Smith; Ward Bond as the redoubtable John L. Sullivan; William Frawley, who plays Billy Delaney, Corbett's first trainer and manager, follow the example set by the stars, showing the kind of work that can only enhance their screen careers.

A series of spectacular victories over leading fighters of the time allows Corbett to challenge John L. Sullivan and in the famed September 7, 1892, bout he wins the heavyweight crown. Corbett's sportsmanlike treatment of Sullivan in a heart-stirring scene in the picture wins Vickie's heart.

In the telling the story loses all the color and movement that makes it so powerful on the screen. Director Walsh, take a bow.

In the reading, this sounds like a rave review, written by a Hollywood press agent, but it really isn't. It's just that "Gentleman Jim" is that good a motion picture.

NOTES

By Gaines Kergosien and Frank Fiefer

There was quite a buzz of excitement on the campus this week by the football players. All the excitement was due to the annual football banquet which was held on the night of Tuesday, February 16. The players who attended were: Jack Perkins, Lawrence Livicari, Wm. Kenney, Nick DiGiralamo, Wm. Kenney, Peyton Waters, J. Perez, Wm. Zimmerman, George Garst, Frank Ruiz, Gene Benoit, Guy Funk, John O'Donohue, Vincent Gullotta, Van Evans, Claude Martin, Ed Zimmerman, Lawrence Yarborough, Joe Killean, Mike Mitchell, Donald Mond, C. Guidry, K. Kuylen, John Ellis, Ross Ewart, Wm. Walton, Wm. Portas, Earl Siguer, mgr.; Wm. Toomey, mgr.; Armstrong Mahoney, mgr.; and Donald Arceneaux, mgr.

We of Stanislaus also wish to extend to Lawrence "Butch" Livicari our best wishes and the best of luck. Butch has been ordered to report for induction into the armed service very soon. He left the campus Wednesday morning, February 17. Butch leaves at Stanislaus many friends and he departs with the prayers of all the boys at Stanislaus, both for himself and for all the other boys in, or soon to be in the armed forces.

We wish, also, to pay tribute in this column to the 6th grade of St. Stanislaus. They have bought the unbelievable sum of $1,993.35 in war bonds and stamps. As a reward for this good work they received Saturday afternoon off, on which they went on a hike with Brother Fer-

War Costs

While ordinarily the sacrifice of war is thought of in terms of killed, wounded and maimed, there is also the economic cost of war to be considered. And while we justly and rightly are prone to think of war sacrifices in the cost of blood, the economic cost to the country is not an insignificant thing.

In World War I this country made substantial contributions in the matter of dollars and the snags of war but not nearly so much as it is going to do in this war. At the close of that war we were contributing 36 percent of the total allied cost of the war. At the rate we are stepping up our contribution to that cause in this war it is safe to predict that before the war is over we will be contributing more than the total of all our allies. Some interesting figures about what we are now contributing have been compiled. For instance, we are today contributing 61.9 percent of our entire national income or a total of $78,000,000,000 up to date in World War II; while the total contribution of Great Britain is 69.2 percent of its national income, which amounts in dollars to only $18,000,000. Add to this Canada's contribution of 45.4 percent of its national income ($2,997,000,000); Australia's 40.3 percent of its national income ($430,000,000); and New Zealand's 63.4 percent of its national income ($23,137,000,000) of contributions by the entire United Kingdom and its dominions as against the $78,000,000,000 from the United States. Moreover, it is estimated that before another year will have passed the total cost to the United States of this war will have reached the stupendous and staggering sum of $213,000,000,000.

The same sources estimate that by that time the total contribution of the British Empire will have been $86,000,000,000. Thus it is seen that the United States is and will continue to contribute the lion's share of the cost of World War II while the Lion itself (Great Britain) will be a poor second. Certainly no European ally will ever again have the effrontery to refer to Uncle Sam as Uncle Shylock.

Subversive Activities

It is a well known fact in Washington that there are many so-called "left-wingers" whose liberalism approaches communism who are eating out of the public trough. In fact, for a number of years it has been understood here that the test of a man's ability to get a job in the government was the degree of liberalism which he possessed. As stated, this liberalism unquestionably in some instances went so far as to embrace socialism and communism.

Several years ago the Rules Committee set up a committee known as the Dies Committee on Un-American Activities to investigate this matter. The Dies Committee, while not entirely free of criticism for some of its methods of operation, has nevertheless rendered a splendid service in exposing this element who infest our government and, in many instances, occupy important policymaking positions. This Committee has repeatedly called the attention of the country to many of these government agents, some of whom according to their own writings have advocated the overthrow of our system of government. Congress has on several occasions undertaken to rid the government bureaus of these enemies of the government by writing provisions into the appropriation bills that none of the funds should go to pay their expenses. A recent example of this one last week when a Negro by the name of William Pickens of communistic tendencies was shown to be an employee of the Treasury Department at a salary of $5,600 a year. The House in the consideration of the Treasury Appropriation Bill wrote a provision therein to the effect that none of the funds should go to the payment of his salary. Then a most interesting thing happened. It was learned that he was a Negro and immediately many of the Republicans as well as the Democratic leaders switched over and voted to put him back on the payroll under the excuse that further investigation should be made. It will be interesting to observe what happens to this Negro and 37 others named with him.

dinand. There is an average of $53.89 for every boy in the class. The highest individual amount of bonds and stamps were bought by Donald White. Donald has bought through the class $871.00 and following in second place is Frank Toye with an amount of $342.55.

Brother Ferdinand and his whole class should be sincerely complimented for their wonderful spirit of patriotism and for setting a fine example.

To this, as to most other articles, a moral is attached. If these boys not yet in their teens, can do such a marvelous job of backing our government, well, surely, we of the higher grades of St. Stanislaus, and all other schools, and you too, the citizens of the U. S., can follow their lead and dig not just a little deeper, but far into our pockets to purchase more of these bonds. Remember, you're not giving your money; you're lending it and receiving $4 for every $3 you invest, and there's no safer investment. Buy Bonds!

ORTIE THEATRE
SUN-MON PRESENTS
"THE WAR AGAINST
MRS. HADLEY"With Edward Arnold, Fay
Bainter, Richard Ney and Jean Rogers

Typical Americans in a gripping human story, in which drama, comedy and pathos blend, come to the screen in "The War Against Mrs. Hadley," a literal study of a woman's soul.

The play revolves about Mrs. Hadley, wealthy widow in wartime Washington. She tries to live her life as before the war, and not be drawn into it. Gradually her friends go into war work, her daughter into a canteen, her son into the army, while she stubbornly holds out against the changed order. A dramatic climax shows her awakening, and her life is flung into the conflict.

Skill and Restraint

Fay Bainter plays the title role with skill and restraint, and Richard Ney, as her son, offers a convincing performance as the ne'er-do-well, spoiled son who redeems himself by becoming a hero. Spring Byington provides a performance in which comedy and drama are mixed, as Mrs. Hadley's socialite friend, who turns to war work. Edward Arnold, as the family solicitor who goes into war work, and thus is entranced temporarily from the client to whom he is also a suitor, plays a polished character with conviction, and Jean Rogers, as the daughter, with Van Johnson as her soldier lover, provides the young romance. Dorothy Morris, Miles Mander, Halliwell Hobbes and Frances Rafferty are skillfully directed by Harold S. Bucquet, and produced by Irving Asher, who gave the screen "Blossoms in the Dust." Interesting photoplay by Karl Freund, and an inspiring musical score by David Snell embellish the picture.

17-Year Olds Have Great Advantage by Joining
Navy Now

"The war has proved for the Navy, among other things, that in battle tactics, fighting stamina and for pure heroism, it's usually the 17-year old kid who walks off with all the fun and most of the honors," Lieutenant J. F. Norris, officer in charge for the Navy in Mississippi, said today.

Lt. Norris intimated the old hands in the Navy will probably take a back seat before this war is over and won. Other men, sitting in at a Navy meeting today called to discuss present enlistment procedure, said the Navy has asked for more seventeen-year-olds to fill the attractive openings now available under its latest programs. This announcement comes not merely from the fact that youngsters make the best material but because teen-age men of the Navy have the most advantages, it was pointed out.

In discussing some of the advantages, Lt. Norris explained that all volunteers under 18 are considered for the various Navy services schools and are eligible to qualify for the training of their preference. They emerge, in most cases, from this special training, with more attractive Petty Officer ratings than most men of older age groups. Becoming a Petty Officer not only means immediate advance in pay but it is the important step in becoming a high ranking Naval officer and men whose ages are in the lower bracket receive advancement easier and quicker because they are more eager and faster to learn, Navy oldtimers admitted.

Chief Gabe Simmons, 32 years a Navy man, leaning from his chair at the meeting and stroking his salty chin said: "The brass buttons and gold braid are falling to America's eager 17-year-old during 1943."

ORTTE THEATRE
Sunday-Monday, Feb. 21-22RESIDENTS OF COAST
AREA WARNED ABOUT
"BLACK-OUT" RULES

Attention of residents and landowners of the Mississippi Coastal Area is called to military dim-out regulations which apply to brush and forest fires in the coastal area, by army officials who are maintaining a close watch over this area for internal protection.

Under the order all lights of any kind are strictly forbidden during the hours of darkness, which includes 30 minutes after sundown in the evening and until 36 minutes before sun-rise in the mornings.

The coastal dim-out area in Mississippi includes the counties of Harrison, Hancock and Jackson.

Landowners and residents are especially cautioned that they will be held responsible for any fires started by them, and they are urged to see that all such fires are out during night-time. This will apply to all uncontrolled fires and to all controlled brush, right-of-way, field or pasture fires, all of which must be extinguished completely during the hours of darkness," said officials.

As a measure of perfecting the black-out for protection to coastal areas and shipping from enemy air and submarine activity, Major General William Bryden, Commanding Fourth Service Command, issued an order effective November 30, 1942, making all brush, grass or forest fires left burning 30 minutes after sundown in the evening and 30 minutes before sun-rise in the morning, a violation of shore lighting restrictions within the "coastal dim-out area."

Army officials pointed out that public law 503, 77th Congress, subjects violators of these instructions to a penalty of a fine up to $5,000.

WITH THE FISHERMEN AND OTHER SPORTS

By KANCHU KETCHUM

BAD NEWS for fly fishermen and bait casters. The closed season on fresh water fish will be the months of March and April—this also takes in any kind of fishing for green trout and other fresh water fish during these months. Better be on your guard!

Trotting of late has not been so good—however, several catches have been reported by W. S. Morrill, Jos. Di Benedetto, Alden Mauffray, R. L. Genin, Millard Toume, Walter Favre, Dec Elliott, August Rauxet, Jr., Laurent Keigoesen, Dr. A. P. Smith and others. The speckles have more or less been scattered this season, and a few red fish have been caught, trotting.

Notice to Hunters: The hunting season on all game closes on February 20th. Clean up the old gun and put it away until next season.

Several rabbits have been killed recently by those indulging in this sport, but those getting the cotton tails say it is hard work to find them.

Paul Leitz of Eyota, Minnesota, a recent guest of R. L. Genin was here on a short visit but did not have time to do any fishing—his favorite pastime. Paul says that he will try to make a trip here this summer and enjoy a few fishing trips with local anglers.

Our old friend "Bill" Brenford at Bayou LaCroix is back, on the job and taking care of the boats at that place.

A. L. Enterante of New Orleans, was over for the week end and enjoyed a fishing trip with his father-in-law, Dec Elliott and Bob Genin. "Tony" took home all the fish.

The month of March and April ushers in the soft crab and flounder fishing season. However, with the restrictions on lighting in this area soft crabbing and flounder fishing will be at a minimum. There are some exceptions, however, and many of these "delicate edibles" will be enjoyed.

A new addition to the fly fishing colony is Mr. Jos. di Benedetto, who has received a brand new fly rod from his son, George, who is in the U. S. Navy. After a few trips "Mr. Joe" has mastered the art of using the fly rod and says it is the best fishing he has enjoyed in all his fishing career—which covers a large span of years. Look out green trout!

With rationing of meat being the talk of the day—better look over the old crab nets. There will be plenty of crabs this season according to those who know and there will be plenty for all. Get busy!

Mr. Cliff Lyons, one of our ardent fly fishermen has been laid up with the flu. Better get alright Cliff, there will be plenty of good fishing after May 1st.

Game Warden Randolph Bourgeois says that the closed season on fresh water fish will be enforced to the limit. Watch your step—lay off after February 28th, as no fresh water fish can be caught until May 1st.

Most of our local golfers are now playing at the Great Southern Golf Course, where Jim Wilson is the pro and where the course is in excellent condition. Jim is a great guy and does everything to make his patrons enjoy a good game.

Remember the tire and gasoline rationing. Take someone with you when you go fishing. Besides having company you will be helping the war effort.

Selectees Interviewed And Given Opportunity To Choose Either Land or Naval Forces

Colonel L. W. Long, state director of selective service, stated that a most satisfactory arrangement has been effected for the induction of selectees into both land and naval forces at the recruiting and induction station, Camp Shelby, Mississippi.

In reviewing the process today, it was found that complete harmony and thorough establishment of the process of assigning selectees to either the land or naval forces has been made. This process began on February 1st in Mississippi and for the third day of its operations, an unusually well organized plan has been established.

Every selectee is carefully interviewed and given an opportunity to express his preference for either land or naval forces. Any registrant who expresses his preference for naval forces is given every consideration for placement in either the coast guard, marine corps, or navy.

The allocation of manpower to the armed forces by the selective service system, of course, is a process which has been carried out since October 1940. The allocation of selected manpower to the various branches of the armed forces is a new process now three days old is completely solving the problem. All men above the age of thirty-seven and those seventeen years of age are not subject to selection at this time, but if they are especially qualified, they may enlist at either the army, navy, or marine corps recruiting stations located throughout the state.

This present plan does not affect the recruitment of women for the various branches of land and naval services which are now available to them and an intensive drive is being made for this recruiting of women.

Colonel Long stated that he felt that this present plan was working most satisfactory and would solve the problem of securing adequate manpower for both land and naval forces.

Womans Society of Christian Service Met On Tuesday

The Womans Society of Christian Service met on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Paul Delcuz in Hancock street with Mrs. Isabelle Joyner and Mrs. F. J. Bopp as co-hostesses.

The devotional "Peace—Just and Enduring" was led by Mrs. Alice Buckley.

The topic "The Christian's Responsibility for a Just and Enduring Peace" was discussed by Mrs. C. C. McDonald.

Mrs. McDonald stressed the women's part in building this peace and said we must be ready for a cooperative world. "What," she said, "is to be our reaction to other nations—hate or love?" She said a certain behavior is demanded of us and women will do whatever is necessary.

She said that our children are victims of false propaganda and they will need all the faith and strength we can give them.

Mrs. McDonald's talk was very impressive and the club as a whole appreciated the message she brought.

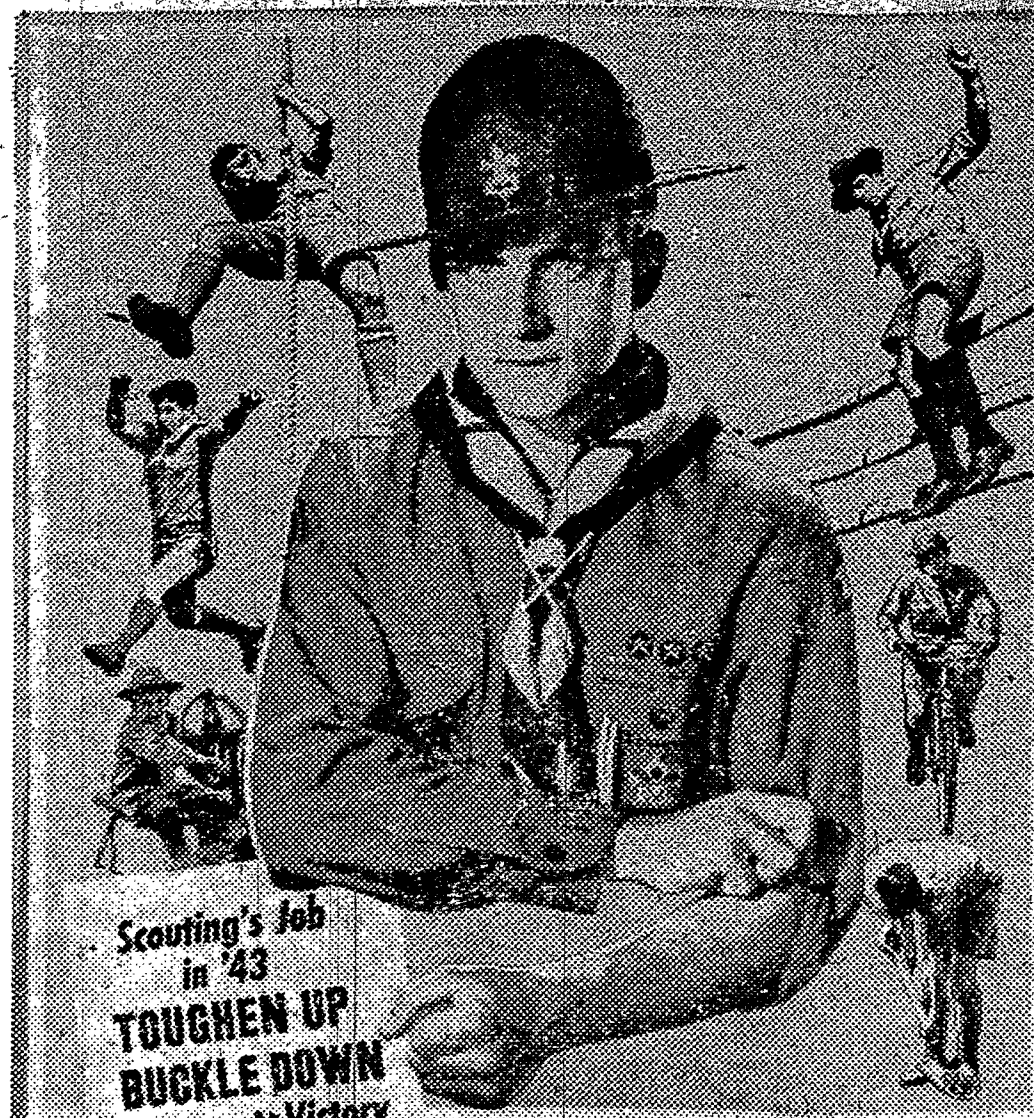

Following the program the business session was held.

Mrs. W. L. Bourgeois, Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab, Mrs. J. A. Evans and Mrs. Jesse Gray were named as the chairmen of the finance committee for the year.

Mrs. C. C. McDonald will lead the Latin-American study for the year. Refreshments were served by the hostesses and a social hour was enjoyed.

spent three days up Jordan river had with them a couple of good rabbit dogs and killed some rabbits which they used for meat, although Red said they could have been cooked better. They were on the boat "Alma Alton" of which Alton Sick was the skipper. Red says that he has been making good use of his time lately as he has been called to the service of his country. He will use a different calibre of gun and we hope his aim will be as good as it was while shooting ducks, squirrels and rabbits.

BOY SCOUT WEEK February 6-12

"Toughen up, Buckle down, and Carry on to Victory", is the Boy Scout major task this year. Their 1,500,000 members are in the conflict to the home front, doing everything boys of Scout age can do to help win the war speedily and a just peace permanently.

This drive will continue a little longer. You can help the Boy Scouts by making a donation to their cause. Headquarters are at the Reed Hotel.

County and Regional Basketball Tournament At Bay High School

The Gulf Coast Region of the Literary and Athletic Association of the State are trying in a limited way to carry on the inter-school contests. With this in view, the following plan has been inaugurated for our basketball in this region. Each of the counties in this region will hold a county play-off on February 26 and 27, followed on March 5 and 6 by the Regional Tournament. There will be no division as to A and B school sin basketball this year. The winner and runner-up for both boys and girls basketball from the county play-off will hold its regional play-off in the Bay High gym on March 5-6. The following schools are eligible to participate in this County play-off and invitations are being sent to these schools for their entry.

The schools:

Boys Teams:

Sellers, Dedaux, Kiln, St. Stanislaus, Bay High.

Girls Teams:

Kiln, Sellers, Dedaux, St. Joseph Academy, Bay High.

Owing to the problem of transportation these tournaments will be played with as little transportation as possible.

The public is invited to attend these games.

Uncle Sam is doing a whale of a job in this global war—and a big part of it is being done by long distance telephone.

That's why we ask you to please use the long distance lines only when really necessary, so as to keep them clear for vital war business. It will be especially helpful if you will, as far as possible, avoid making any long distance calls to war-busy industrial centers.

Material shortages prevent expansion of telephone facilities to fill the general increasing demand for service, so won't you help to make the most of what we have, knowing that in doing this you are making a genuine contribution to the war effort?

Captain Fortune Anthony Dugan Fatally Injured In Bomber

Captain Fortune Anthony Dugan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Dugan, Sr., 8002 Jeannette street, New Orleans was fatally injured in a crash of a Royal Air Force ferry command bomber in Newfoundland, Tuesday night February 9 according to dispatches received by his parents at New Orleans.

The aircraft had completed a flight from the United Kingdom and crashed at night after bad weather had prevented a landing at the proper airport. It was supposed it was trying to find another landing place when it crashed in an isolated region where it was found later by searching aircraft.

Captain Dugan, a native of New Orleans, joined the R. A. F. ferry command in 1940. He was engaged in flying American-built planes to Britain, after carrying passengers and war materials. In 1942 he established a new flying record by crossing the Atlantic five times in nine days between Montreal and the British Isles.

He was a graduate of Fortier High school, he attended Louisiana State University and was also instructor and lecturer in the university's aeronautics department. Before his service with the ferry command he was connected with commercial airlines in this country.

Capt. Dugan is survived by five brothers, Lawrence C., William J., Albert F., John W., and John V., Jr. and two sisters, Mrs. A. A. DeFrates and Mrs. V. T. Jackson, Jr. He was a nephew of Mrs. Leo Kenney and Mrs. Clemence Chadwick of this city. The Echo extends sympathy to the family.

Hot Meals for School Children Served Saint Margaret's Lunch Room

St. Margaret's Daughters School Lunch Room is serving a vital war necessity in the feeding of hundreds of school children every day at their well-equipped lunch room in the Boy Scout House in the rear of Our Lady of the Gulf Church.

With numbers of women filling the places of men who have left for service and with the shortage of domestic help a hot well-balanced meal for school children at the noon hour served at the small price of 10c is certainly a great convenience for many children who otherwise would be compelled to eat cold lunch because of their mothers engaged in war work and also because of gasoline rationing and the lack of facilities for going to and from home because of the distance.

The lunch room is not for underprivileged children or the children who are unable to buy their lunch, but for any school child who wishes to be served a hot meal.

Recent Real Estate Sales

Cottage at 212 Ballentine street owned by the Home Owners Loan Corporation was sold by R. Terrell Perkins, agent, to Miss Hilda Lader for a consideration of $750.00.

A cottage at the corner of Ballentine and Hancock streets formerly owned by Henry and Eva Barnes was sold to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Strong.

A beach home on the Waveland Beach front was sold by R. J. Kingmill to W. T. Gillingham for a consideration of $4500.00.

A house and lot were sold in Clermont Harbor by Miss J. Pabst to Alfred Potier for a consideration of $1500.00.

Jack Panno sold three lots in Waveland to Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Provell for a consideration of $500.

Watermelon growers in the counties of Smith, Simpson, Covington, Yalobusha, an dto some extent in several other counties are disturbed over the fertilizer situation which the OPA in Washington has held that the watermelon crop is non-essential and for that reason melon farmers will not be allowed to buy fertilizer for growing melons and will not be allowed gasoline for hauling the melons to market. The annual melon crop in the four counties named above seems to average about $7,000,000. Efforts are being made to work out a solution to the problem.

National Sales Tax

The matter of a national sales tax has been suggested in many quarters as the best way to finance the war. A. S. Cody, Secretary of the State Tax Commission, is good authority on tax matters, state and national and he figures that a ten percent sales tax will bring to the government around eight billion dollars a year. It comes in a steady flow day by day, is paid in the price of the goods and in such small amounts that it is hardly missed, and would take the place of some other taxes more objectionable than the sales tax. These are some of the arguments made for the federal sales tax.

Press Meeting

President Geo. W. Goodwin of the Mississippi Press Association has called a meeting of the state publishers to convene in Jackson on Friday night, February 19th. The meeting will be held at the Edwards Hotel (Friday night and Saturday). Conditions brought about by the war makes it necessary for the newspapers to have this conference for the purpose of planning the best possible support for the war effort.

Plant Pine and Locust

State Forester Albert A. Leggett has announced that farmers and others who want seedling pine and locust for planting this season should rush their orders in at once. The season is well nigh over but several thousand of the different varieties are still on hand and can be supplied at from $2.25 to $2.50 per thousand for pine and from $2.50 to $3.00 per thousand for locust and other hardwood. These prices provide delivery. Orders may be sent to H. H. Essary, Nurseryman, Mt. Olive, Mississippi, or to your local forest ranger, if your county has one. This is a matter of vital importance and should not be put off.

Two for Governor

Two distinguished Mississippians have announced to the public that they will be candidates for Governor in the primaries to be held in August of this year. They are: Former Governor Mike Conner and Thos. L. Bailey of Meridian. They were both in the contest for Governor in 1939. Both Conner and Bailey have to their credit many years of public service, the former having served eight years in the Legislature and was speaker during both terms, while the latter has served six terms in the House and three times as speaker.

The Houston Post has announced that the suggestion of Mayor Rick, that one day each week the stores close and allow the clerks and the proprietors to work in the garden, has been accepted in Houston. The suggestion has been taken up in other counties and may become a state-wide movement.

HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE MONDAY A. M.

The Bay St. Louis Fire Department distinguished itself this week by its excellent work in quelling several fires which threatened to become disastrous.

On last Saturday, the garage of the Cal. Hadden's was completely burned and the house damaged by a fire which for a while threatened property in the neighborhood, the Hadden home being situated on Dunbar avenue.

Caused by a defective flue which raged in the roof and attic of the home of Asa Peterson and which was not discovered until the roof and ceilings collapsed caused a total loss of the Peterson home on Esterbrook street, although clothing and the furnishings of the house were saved.

On Monday, sparks from a grate fire caused a fire in the home of Emile Labat on Citizen street but due to the quick action of the Fire Department, only slight damage was caused.
